

Commercial Litigation Solicitor

Jamieson Alexander Legal is a private solicitors practice located in London, EC4; Bournemouth, Dorset, and most recently Bedfordshire. All our lawyers and staff pride themselves on being fit, active and healthy, not stuffy. We pride ourselves on not only providing a first-class service, but in also being a supportive and forward-thinking workplace. We opened our doors in 2013 but all have a healthy passion for the 'out-of-doors', hence our tagline: 'a breath of fresh air'.

As a firm, we work for both individuals and various types of organisations. Whoever our client, our aim is to truly understand our clients' needs in order to achieve great results and to provide the best possible service along the way. For example:

- We work in an efficient and cost-effective manner with our clients' best interests as our top priority.
- We don't have big flashy offices, they're unnecessary. Instead we embrace mobile working and the effective use of modern technology.
- We're not 'cheap', instead we work hard at being proficient.

All of this means that we can pass the massive cost savings on to our Clients, so they only pay for our genuine work, skill and expertise... not our flashy office-plants.
